

RESIN

Eden are proud to still offer the world renowned Dangari range which has stood the test of time for over 40 years. Originally manufactured by Allibert and then Evolutif, the furniture in the Dangari Range have become classics within the industry, known for their untouchable quality and longevity. Dangari resin furniture is truly the market leader with many customers owning the pieces for more than 25 – 30 years. The quality of the raw materials used ensures that the colours won't fade and the whites won't yellow. This range is tested to BSEN 581-1:1997 and BS 4875:pt2:1985.

We also offer an entry level range providing contract quality at low costs.
